

THE LATEST WITH LA-LA

Summer Updates

---

LAST DAY OF LESSONS

Congratulations! We have made it through another year of lessons, despite our abnormal circumstances. I am proud of us and how we have navigated this path together. The students' perseverance is commendable and as much as they have accomplished this year, it's time for a well-deserved break. The last day of lessons are on Friday, June 25.

RECITAL PLANS

It is with great disappointment I have to announce that our recital will not be in-person. Venues and resources are apprehensive to participate in an event just yet, but July and August look promising for other activities. We will have a Zoom recital on June 27 @ 7pm. Please RSVP via email by next Friday, the 25th and I will send the link and performance list on the Sunday morning.

LAUREN'S LATEST ADVENTURE

As many of you know, I completed my Bachelors of Communications degree majoring in Public Relations in April. Since graduation, I have joined the communications team at Calgary Opera for the summer.

SUMMER LESSONS

Although some students are in need of a break, others wish to continue their progress. Ellen, Timothonius and I are open to offering lessons this summer or the occasional tune up when needed. Timothonius is offering music production lessons, which is a great skill to hone during the summer months. Please reach out if you are interested.

It looks like we will have an exciting summer here in Calgary, so stay tuned to La-La's social media channels to get the latest on local events.

I want to congratulate everyone on making it through another year of online music lessons. I am hopeful that lessons in the fall will return to normal. Until then, relax and enjoy the summer. I will be in touch with you in August!
